

Sterling Equestrian Center

Welcome to Sterling Equestrian Center.
We are very excited to have you join us!

Enclosed in this packet you will find contact information, rules and policies for the barn, and important information regarding the things you will need to ride at Sterling.

It is a privilege to be a part of the Sterling family. We all work together to make the barn a great place for everyone. Sterling Equestrian Center is one of the only English Riding Equestrian Schools in the area. We have found that what sets us apart the most is the quality of training and the number and quality of horses that are available for lessons. At Sterling, you will find that we have a very large selection of quality horses and ponies. This ensures that every rider has the proper fit for their skill set. We also find that the riders who put the most into our program receive the most benefit from our program. Therefore, we ask that you put your all into your experience here with us and always treat your lesson horse as your own by arriving at least 15 min prior to your lesson to tack your horse (or help if you can't quite do it yet) and stay 15 min after your lesson to cool your horse down and turn it out if it is done for the day.

Each day, there is a "barn mom" who is available for help and direction. Please make sure to touch base with her upon arrival to the barn every day and just before departure to make sure that you have contributed to the group effort to make our barn the best place to be!

If ever you have concerns, questions, or comments about our program or facility please direct them to either Cathy Stephenson, owner, or Katie Sisk, Barn Administrator.

Holidays and Barn Closing:

The barn will be closed the week of Cobb County's Spring Break, Thanksgiving week, and the week of Christmas. These dates will be posted each year based on the Cobb County school calendar. The annual tuition reflects these holidays, therefore no makeup lessons are necessary, or will be provided, for these holidays.

Lesson Schedules:

It is required that students take at least one lesson per week. Students signing up for more than one lesson per week will be required to maintain that number of lessons every week through the entire month. The lesson schedule is posted weekly. Classes are composed considering rider's skill, age, horse availability, and rider's personal schedule. A weekly email is sent out regarding schedule changes and additions. If you have made a change, that change will be listed in the email. If you have not made a change, your rider will not be listed and it is assumed that they will be as scheduled.

Missed Lessons:

It is each rider's responsibility to communicate changes, via email, to the Sterling schedule coordinator. This can be done by emailing sterlingequestriancenterg@gmail.com with any conflicts or changes that need to be made. Changes for the current week need to be submitted by Sunday at noon. This is each rider's responsibility, regardless of whether a reminder email is sent. If you neglect to send changes by the Sunday of the week you needed to make the change, you must forfeit the lesson missed that week. If your rider falls ill, the schedule coordinator must be contacted by email, text, or phone call at least one (1) hour prior to the lesson in order to receive a makeup lesson. The phone number is 770-765-5573.

No Shows:

If you fail to notify us prior to your lesson you will not be attending, that lesson is then forfeited. We need to remember to respect the time and effort that goes into making sure the horses are ready and available. We also have to respect our horses who work tirelessly through the afternoon for us. It is not fair to them to leave them tied and standing in their tack waiting for someone who does not show up.

Makeup Lessons:

It is each rider's responsibility to contact the schedule coordinator to schedule makeup lessons. Makeup lessons will be granted for missed lessons that were missed following the proper protocol. Makeup lessons may be accumulated throughout the calendar year, but not carried into the following calendar year. It is the rider's responsibility to keep up with any accumulated makeup lessons.

Raining:

When it is raining, any classes that start prior to 5 p.m. will have an inside lesson about Horse Care and Management. There are many things to learn outside of the ring which can greatly increase the student's horsemanship and knowledge. If you choose not to attend an indoor lesson, you have opted to forfeit the lesson. NO makeup lessons will be provided for lessons that were cancelled by the trainer.

If inclement weather (or any other reason) causes lessons to be cancelled by the trainer, then an email will be sent out notifying the students of the cancellation. These lessons will be made up at a time agreed upon by the barn management and the student.

Horse Shows and Other Riding Events:

Emails will be sent out to all riders regarding upcoming events, shows, and trail rides. If you would like for your rider to participate in the event, it is imperative that an email be sent to sterlingequestriancenterga@gmail.com. Paper work and deadlines will also be sent via email. Sometimes, there will be a sign-up sheet at the barn for events; however, an email from the parent must be sent in order to secure a spot.

Policy Statement Agreement Form and Release of Liability Form:

The Agreement Form and Release of Liability Form for each student must be on file in the office. Please sign the attached forms and submit it to the barn either at the time of, or prior to, the riders first lesson.

Weekend Leasing:

Weekend leasing is available to currently enrolled Sterling Students. Leasing must be pre-approved by the trainer. All arrangements must be made through the barn manager and pricing will be determined based on the length of the lease. Jumping is permitted only if a trainer is on site and provides permission.

Dress Code:

All riders must wear ASTM approved helmets. No one will be allowed to mount a horse without wearing an approved helmet. We recommend that each student purchase their own helmet to ensure proper fit and comfort. However, if you cannot provide your own helmet we will be glad to provide one for you. Your students safety is our most important concern.

All riders must wear shoes that have a small heel, and are preferably made of leather or a leather like material. Proper footwear is important for the student's safety as well. Shoes without heels can allow the riders foot to slip through the stirrup during a fall creating a potential for a more serious mishap. Paddock boots with jeans or jodhpurs are preferred for the younger or beginner riders. Tall boots and breeches are preferred for the novice and advanced riders.

Students should also be neat and tidy. Loose clothing and jewelry can also create the potential for accidents or mishaps around the horses while riding. Polo type shirts are preferred during the summer months. No bathing suits, skimpy tops, or baggy pants will be permitted while riding. Long hair should be pulled back neatly in a ponytail while riding.

Food and Drinks:

Please feel free to use the refrigerator in the kitchen to store drinks or other items of food. Please only eat the food you have brought for yourself. Please do not help yourself to someone else's food without asking.

During warm weather, please make sure to bring water in a sports type bottle. Remember, riding is a physical activity and during the summer months you will need plenty of water to prevent dehydration. We do provide water during short breaks in our group lessons.

Only water bottles should be brought into the riding arena. All other food should be kept in the kitchen or in the pavilion outside.
